When Helen Moore gets a job in a charming seaside guesthouse, she expects a life of smooth domestic routine, but there is trouble in store. Her favorite guest, James, is writing a book about the fishing community, and he asks Helen to help him with his research. Helen soon meets some of the local fisher girls and finds herself drawn into their harsh lives. Suddenly, the theft of some diamonds from Seaview casts suspicion on Helen, and she must cross paths with some dangerous people in her quest to prove her innocence.
