Walberg & Auge: The History and Future of America's Most Innovative and Unknown Drum Company (Full Color) Jeremy Esposito

Established in 1903, Walberg and Auge began as a musical instrument repair and manufacturing company that made "Band Instruments" such as drums, bells, xylophones and traps. During the nativity Jazz, Walberg and Auge innovated and manufactured many components which consist the "Modern Drum Set" we know today. This book is a collection of historical artifacts and memoirs that tell the history of how this small company made such a large impact in the musical instrument industry. Re-Established in 2014, Walberg and Auge is now a 'Historical Preservation Drum Company' for historical and educational purposes. We hope you enjoy the story of this "American Treasure."
