Home Care Services (Skills for Caring) Elaine Roberts, Betty Templeton

This is an extension text in the "Skills for Caring" series - the series for health and social care workers that reflects the skills and standards necessary to obtain National Vocational Qualifications (NVQs) in care work. The text explores the delivery of care in the client's own home and it looks at the agencies involved in providing home care delivery. The book can be used either for group or for individual study. The authors together manage the community domiciliary care services available to elderly and disabled people for a Regional Council.
