Is it true that siblings are born to squabble? Is squabbling a birthright of all children?

As parents and grandparents, sometimes we might feel the answer is yes to both questions. Most sibling quarrels are resolved by the children themselves. However, sometimes the squabbling demands our wisdom, which comes with age, in order to restore, with sternness and humor, peace and harmony to our households, as what Paw Paw, Will You Set the Timer, Please? will show!
