o Showcases the work of popular and influential Dutch designer, Marcel Wolterinck

o Promotes a total concept approach to design in which all elements from interior to exterior work in sync

Marcel Wolterinck remains one of the most popular and influential style masters in the Netherlands. In this book outside and inside become an organic unity, with beautiful garden designs that connect the rooms of the house with the outside; it contains projects from all over Europe, each one beautifully photographed by Sigurd Kranendonk.

Wolterinck's touch is boundless and is taking the international scene by storm. Far and wide, interiors and exteriors, terraces, gardens and events are undergoing magical metamorphoses, courtesy of this prominent designer.
