Catechist 101: Wade, Don't Dive (Essential Catechist's Bookshelf) Carole M. Eipers, D.Min.

Reading this book is like journeying with a wise and trusted friend who offers the perfect combination of sage advice and support. Eipers brings her considerable storytelling gifts, years of catechetical experience, and clear common sense to this honest and reassuring work. More than a how-to guide (although the classroom tips are brilliant), more than a journal or memoir (although Eipers accounts of her teaching experiences will have catechists smiling and nodding their heads), this empowering book can help both new and seasoned catechists discover what they can do as catechists, and more importantly, who they can be: living examples of God's love for everyone.
