This is an excellent review and test-prep guide for the AP Comparative Government and Politics course (not produced or endorsed by the Advanced Placement program or the College Board). There are chapters on all six countries in the curriculum. The country chapters are organized using the outline of the AP curriculum. Additional chapters focus on the discipline of comparative politics, learning styles, and international organizations. Each chapter includes a multiple-choice review quiz. At the end of the book, there is a full-length practice exam and an annotated key. Online supplements include corrections, updates, and links to other sources.
