Plummet Tony Payne, Jan Payne

Plummet is a little flying frog, but he has a problem. It's a problem that has taken his smile away, causing him to wear a sad face. Plummet has lost his smile because he is a flying frog who cannot fly. One day, he meets a nice little girl frog named Be-Bop. She wants him to join her in play, but he can't. He's ashamed to tell her that he doesn't know how to fly. Time passes, and one fine day he meets Be-Bop again. At last, she discovers why Plummet is so sad—but she believes she knows a way to make him happy once again. This charming story for younger boys and girls has delightful color illustrations on every page.
