Anything Goes is a fast-paced, intriguing tale of deceit, murder, revenge and betrayal. The plot is simple. Raven engages in a series of erotic adventures, has her feelings hurt by sleazy men, is caught up in plotting revenge, hurts a lot of people, and plunges headlong toward disaster. She has some feeble impulses toward living a decent life with a decent man, but, well, you'll just have to read it. Each character is interesting, well drawn, and over-sexed.
