Homegrown Democrat: A Few Plain Thoughts From The Heart Of America Garrison Keillor
A New York Times Bestseller

With great heart and wit and a dash of anger, Keillor describes the democratic values of the hard-working God-fearing people of Lake Wobegon and the idea of the common good - the civil compact that Republicans have been attacking for the past decade. A reminiscence, a political tract, and a humorous meditation, this is a deeply personal work from one of America's best loved voices.
