A maritime history professor teams-up with a Naval Intelligence agent to search the Caribbean for lost treasure in this fact-filled adventure. Employing authentic "psychic spy" methods and unconventional sailors, they search time and exotic islands for gold and silver hoarded by legendary Mexican dictator and Alamo villain General Santa Anna. To make headway, Thayer Harris, PhD explores 1860s St. Thomas, then capital of the Danish West Indies, one of the world's busiest ports and Santa Anna's retirement home. Dr. Harris uncovers a mysterious connection between the ex-dictator and President Lincoln's Secretary of State, battles the 19th-century's worst hurricane and takes on unscrupulous corporate treasure hunters. This is the second Thayer Harris adventure. The first, "Undocumented Visitors in a Pirate Sea," was a quarter-finalist in the 2014 Amazon Breakthrough Novel contest. It is available on Amazon.com.
