When 16-year-old Harry visits France, his journey plummets him into one of history's darkest times-the French Revolution. Chaos challenges Harry's faith as he struggles not only to survive, but to rescue the family who lovingly took him in as their own and who now face the guillotine for no other "crime" than their noble lineage. This Audio Adventure will leave you breathless as you follow one boy's journey from the crushing darkness of human pride to the hope and courage of God's loving light.

Join us for history's most daring expeditions and greatest adventures. Stories of virtue and valor, daring and determination, character and courage. From history's master of storytelling, these are... The Extraordinary Adventures of G.A. Henty©

Adapted from the book, In the Reign of Terror, by G.A. Henty.
