Ten Little Crocodiles and the Big, Big Pond Davenna Williams Ph.D

In Ten Little Crocodiles and the Big, Big Pond, ten (10) is the magic number and croc-croc-crocodiles are the most phenomenally fun creatures in the pond. With spectacular illustrations, this children's beginning reader not only sparks imaginations, but also interest in counting and basic mathematics skills. It turns out, author and educator Dr. Davenna Williams knows a thing or two about young minds, budding students, and the importance of supporting learning in this area at an early age. Written specifically for preschool to early childhood aged children as an introduction to mathematical concepts such as counting, number sense and recognition, she creates a poetically charged and downright captivating tale about ten loveable and carefree crocodiles that will surely steal your heart. Start counting...

As a scholar exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library in order to make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's internal or real their hobby. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring and also can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Ten Little Crocodiles and the Big, Big Pond can make you sense more interested to read.
