"My name is Ruby. I've been framed for murder by The New Rulebook. Though I've never heard of or seen it, its masterminds hotly pursue me..." Ruby Masters just saw a woman die. And discovered The New Rulebook--something she knows nothing about. But it knows everything about her--enough to frame her for murder. Ruby calls on the one person she trusts, her best friend, Robert Towers. Robert will find a way out. He always has. But she didn't count on him falling in love with her--and turning Christian. His unrelenting grip on a newfound faith irritates Ruby--until she finds herself captured behind enemy lines, helpless, alone, and with no way out. When all human effort fails, what she gets at the end, is the one thing she didn't see coming, completely changing her life and Robert's.
