Can an outlaw redeem himself after so many wrongdoings? Can he ever find a place to settle down if he had the chance? Those dreams seem pretty far-fetched for someone like Thomas Dawne. A member of Ralph Lloyd's gang, his life is pretty much set in the wrong path. His sins are many and that is plain to see. Thomas accepts the fact that his dreams of love and settling down could never happen for a man like him. However, God has a plan for everyone! It is no coincidence that he and his gang come to the small town of South Pass City. As he and his gang make their great getaway after robbing the bank, Thomas is wounded and abandoned by his so-called friends in a cave outside of town, where they leave him to bleed to death. By the grace of God, a young Christian schoolteacher stumbles upon him on her way home and nurses him back to health. She is unaware of his identity or past because he made up the perfect lie. To her, he is known simply as "Joe."
