There's never been a directory like the American Employer Digest 2003. This new book and CD-ROM combination lets job-seekers apply online to all the top US employers in their field in a single afternoon.

This quality directory profiles the 10,000 most-admired employers in the USA -- companies and organizations that are recognized as leaders in their fields. Each employer listing includes full contact information, plus a description of the employer's operations and industry. Also tells you the best way to apply for a job at each employer.

An easy-to-use Industry Index lets job-seekers quickly locate great employers in hundreds of major industries. A detailed Geographic Index makes it easy to find leading employers in every state and thousands of cities across the USA.

Best of all, 100% of the employers recruit online. Readers can use the included CD-ROM to search quickly through all the data in the book -- then send their resume online to the best employers in their field or region. (Please note: the data on this CD-ROM cannot be exported.)

Don't waste another moment approaching employers that aren't leaders in their field! Use this quality directory to apply quickly to the best American employers in any industry or region.
