Little Guy Haiku: Life with Bailey, a Maltese John J. Han

On an icy night, two muggers took Bailey—a five-pound Maltese—from the poet’s older daughter. Soon after, they released him into the darkness, he miraculously survived freezing temperatures, and he came back with minor injuries the next day. Now he fills the house of his owner and the rest of the family with delight and mirth. This picture book collects 100 light-hearted haiku written by the poet as he took care of Bailey in 2008 while the dog’s “mommy” was attending law school out of state. The works convey the poet’s keen observation of Bailey’s amusing behavior and his appreciation of the toy dog’s presence in his life. This is a story of suffering, agony, triumph, and joy delivered in verse form. Beautifully illustrated by the poet’s younger daughter, this small volume is an essential reading for all pet lovers.
