Excerpt from The Rivers of Devon From Source to Sea: With Some Account of the Towns and Villages on Their Banks

So many of the Devonshire rivers rise upon Dartmoor that it has been impossible to avoid going over some of the ground traversed in my 'exploration' of that wild and interesting region. There has been, too, some reference - but not, I think, much - to places already described in my Exmoor.' To those who have read these works I Offer my apologies - if what is inevitable needs an apology; to those who have not I have done no wrong.
