Holding Wonder Zenna Henderson

Here are children who "believe"-- but what they believe and how they can realize their beliefs is only half the story....Dismey, for example, believes she's a magician. Two little boys who teased her can prove it. But she can't tell-- she's turned them into rocks! And how do you explain an amazing child who believes in attending school--but is hundreds of years old? The explanation is simple...if you believe!
