The Burren Trails Jackie Queally

A most attractive and quirky itinerary guide to an area of outstanding natural beauty in the west of Ireland. Includes 80 colour photos, nine routes from various starting points with maps, GPS and original text. The guide is a social commentary, with history, archaeology, legends and some bias towards understanding the earth energies or deeper qualities of the region. It includes the Burren Lowlands to the east of the Burren where the rivers rise. The author is a guide and advocate of "slow tourism". Without visiting this unique region you can get a strong taste of it by reading this book.
