Here it is: An easy guide to the political issues that are important to you.

Bernie Sanders and Donald Trump both present very different views of what it will take to "Make America Great Again."

But are they really all that different?

This short, easy-to-understand book compares and contrasts the major positions of the candidates on subjects like abortion, gay marriage, Social Security, and immigration in a simple, side-by-side bullet-point format.

You don't have to take the author's word that these positions are accurate, though. Every political position quoted in this book contains a source link for your own research.

Winston Churchill famously said that "Democracy is the worst form of government, except for all those other forms." A representative democracy works best when the voters are informed.

Your journey toward becoming an informed voter starts here.
