Reversed World Power Ryan Hodge

To be black in America can often be a very stressful and chaotic situation to endure. Many parents fear that their black babies won't return home the way they left or even worse, they may never return home at all. As a parent, you want the best home life, schools, and even the best world for your children. Unfortunately, the world has many opposing forces to what you desire for your children. Harry Smith tries to secure the best possible situation for his son, Nayr, by doing the unthinkable to achieve his goal. Will Harry be successful in his endeavor or will he cause his son and the people around him much unnecessary harm?
